Online Guest Lecture (Speaker Dr. Neha Verma, Senior Scientific Officer, Forensic Laboratory, New Delhi) on "Advances in Life Sciences: Trends in Forensic Science and Technology"

Introduction to Forensic Science

- ☺ Application of scientific knowledge to aid in the administration of justice.
- ☺ "Forensics" from a Latin word "forensis" which means 'Forum' or 'gathering of people'.
- ☺ Forensic can be described as the legal proceedings in the court of law shaped in the form of evidence. The forensic scientist analyses and interprets the evidence for justice to the victim.

The Zoom interface includes a recording indicator, a timer (00:18:41), and a bottom toolbar with options like Unmute, Start Video, Security, Participants (47), Chat, Share Screen, Pause/Stop Recording, Reactions, and Leave. The system tray at the bottom shows the Windows taskbar with various application icons and the date/time: 11:06 AM, 22/05/2021.
