2.6.2. Attainment of Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes are Evaluated by the Institution

- Departments design the Program Outcomes and Course Outcomes based on the Curriculum of University.
- All these Outcomes are communicated to the teachers during the meetings and provided copies to each department.
- Students are communicated during the Induction Program and first 2 – 3 lectures of start of academic college.
- Assessment methods are based on direct and indirect methods.
- Direct methods for Program Outcome and Course outcome attainment is done through internal examination conducted by Continuous Internal Examination Committee and University Examinations.
- Internal examinations are conducted semester wise during the academic year. These include tests, tutorials, open book test, MCQ quiz, crossword solving etc.
- Marks scored in the Internal and University examinations are considered for the Course attainment.
- Final marks of the University examinations are considered for the Program attainment.
- For the Program attainment average of all groups of respective program is considered
- Indirect assessment is done through seminar presentations, group discussions, feedback systems, during class interactions, alumni meets, seminars, project submissions, practical orals etc.
- For attainment, target is set for every year
- Those with poor attainments are observed and improvements are implemented by respective subject teacher
