Analysis and Observation of Student Satisfaction Survey

2021-22

Student Satisfaction Survey was conducted in online mode. The link of Google Form was provided to all students after the end of academic year through mentors.

1) Syllabus completed during the academic year was between 85 – 100% as reported by 48.9% students. While, 32.8% students mentioned 70-84% syllabus completion. 10.8% students responded that syllabus covered up to 55 to 69%. It shows that syllabus planning is done and observed meticulously.

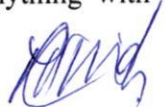

2) The percentage of teacher's thorough preparation for the classes is found 26%. 56% is observed under satisfactory category. A little percentage of poor preparation, indifference, teachers who don't teach at all is observed too.

3) In regards with the communication ability of the teachers, 59.4 % of effective communication ability was reported by students. 21.4% teachers are observed to have intermittent effective communication. There is considerable percentage of effectiveness at satisfaction level where as the analysis shows a little percentage of teachers who are generally ineffective or with poor communication abilities.

4) 36.2 percentile of students feel that the teacher's approach to teaching is excellent where as 32.8% students reported teachers have very good approach towards teaching. The teachers with 26.6% come under good segment whereas a little percentage is shown with the teachers who are fair and poor in their teaching approach.

5) The report shows that 53.3% teachers are always fair in the internal evaluation process, whereas 26.3% are usually fair. There are also a percentage of teachers who are fair sometimes in their internal evaluation process. A thin segment of students are towards teachers who never show fairness in their internal evaluation.

6) 56.3% students are of the opinion that the teachers always discussed with them about their performance in the assignment whereas 26.9 percentile students have reported that they discussed it usually. There is some percentage of students who had the discussions sessions sometimes. There are also a negligible percentage of the students who rarely or never discussed anything with their teachers about their performance in the assignments.
